If you're editing a previously entered Utility Allowance than many of these fields will already be populated. The following sections detail how the Utility Allowance Entry Screen's information is divided.

4.1 Utility Description Information

The top of the Utility Allowance Entry Screen shows the descriptive information for the Utility Allowance, which includes the Property's name (this will be automatically populated), a descriptive name you must choose, the effective date, the number of bedrooms this utility allowance applies to, and the type of utility allowance it is, for example...

Property Name Paula's Place Description 1br2013
Description Effective Date 01-01-2013
Effective Date  Bedrooms 1 Bedroom
Bedrooms Studio Allowance Type Utility Company Estimate
Allowance Type Utility Company Estimate to Allowance Type Utility Company Estimate

All of this information is required

Best Practice: For Description enter in a name that would indicate what effective date and bedroom size it's for, for example 1brdm2012. Please include additional descriptive features if you have multiple Utility Allowances for a bedroom type to help you choose the correct Utility Allowances in the future.

4.2 Applying to Buildings

Another important portion of the Utility Allowance Entry Screen is the building selection area in the upper right of the screen. Be sure to select the appropriate building(s) that you want this utility allowance to be an option for.
