

Communications Director

Illinois Housing Development Authority (IHDA), one of the Nation's preeminent Housing Finance Agencies and one of the State's ten largest financial institutions, is currently seeking a Director of Communications to build upon their 50+ year leadership in housing finance.

Summary Statement:

Under the general supervision of the Executive Director, handles overall external communications and other public information of the Authority with an eye toward increasing knowledge of and favorable attitudes toward the Authority among business and financial leaders, the media throughout Illinois, community interest groups, government leaders and the general public. Responsible for all aspects of communications, including: planning; promotion, public/media relations; collateral development and website development/updates. Develops and maintains business relationships between the Authority and its participating lenders as well as indirect business partners such as realtors, builders, and affordable housing non-profit organizations.

Education and Experience requirements:

College graduate. Masters Degree preferred. 5-10 years experience in public relations/ journalism and communications and marketing preferred. Excellent writing and organizational skills required. Ability to manage and provide direction to a team. Must be able to manage and prioritize multiple projects. Experience with state government, publications development and housing issues are pluses.

Excellent benefits package, including 401 (k); immediate vesting.

To apply, submit resume to:

https://workforcenow.adp.com/mascsr/default/mdf/recruitment/recruitment.html?cid=ee890b7a-c9a4-4880-b61b-79abf60f096e&cclid=19000101_000001&jobId=260039&source=CC2&lang=en_US

EOE